

CREATE EQUALITY SO AS TO BUILD PEACE

1. Opening and greetings

2. Gen Verde's Tour of Great Britain

10 weeks of workshops and concerts, travelling throughout the country from north to south. Many young people and people of different religions all involved in the discovery of hope and wanting to reach the goal of peace together.

2. Bishops of Different Churches in Istanbul

34 bishops from 16 Churches welcomed by Patriarch Bartholomew I. A deep experience of mutual love, of listening and respect for diversity, so that a more united Christianity can offer God's light to suffering humankind.

4. Honorary Doctorate in the Culture of Unity awarded to Patriarch Bartholomew I.

Piero Coda, President of the Sophia University Institute, considers the meaning of an event arising out of the relationship between Chiara Lubich and Patriarch Athenagoras. It was an important step on the road to unity between the Church of the East and the Church of the West.

5. In dialogue with Maria Voce (Emmaus)

6. Giving a home

In Holland, 118 young people who had survived the Mediterranean crossing found a home in a Focolare centre.

7. "Sign up for peace"

A worldwide appeal for peace on Signupforpeace.cf which will be given to heads of government and the United Nations.

8. With merciful eyes

In Italy, the Giorgio La Pira International Centre has been welcoming young people from many parts of the world for 37 years. An exhibition of Michel Pochet's work expresses the tears of a God who heals people's wounds.

9. In dialogue with Jesús Morán

10. Environmental protection is also a matter of justice

In the context of the meeting of "Communion and Law" and on the eve of the COP21 meeting in Paris, we hear from three experts. There is no alternative for the environment at global level. Either we improve it or we destroy it. This gives new impetus to personal responsibility in daily life.

11. A new Lebanon begins in Beirut

Because of an emergency due to mountains of garbage, Beirut citizens of every age, faith and background were on the streets to care for their country.

12. News from the Focolare communities on the Kiribati Islands

What impact can the "art of loving" have in one of the Polynesian countries likely to disappear due to rising sea level caused by climate change?

13. Silvana Veronesi's first meeting with Chiara

From an interview recorded for the commemorative event on the 4th anniversary of Chiara Lubich's death, "Chiara Lubich and the new generations", Castelgandolfo 11th March 2012.

14. "War means death. Peace is love"

In the Democratic Republic of Congo, 2000 children shout with one voice, "We want peace". Children of a country at war for 30 years shout and sing their will for a better future.

15. The "golden rule" as the way to build fraternity and peace.

Chiara Lubich shows the way ahead to young people gathered in front of the Colosseum in Rome at their Supercongress on the 26th May 2002.

16. Conclusion